

Matt Giza Promoted to Executive VP and GM of Medical Device Manufacturer: Cogmedix

WORCESTER, MA, September 3, 2015

Cogmedix, an ISO 13485–certified, US-based, FDA-compliant contract medical device manufacturer, is pleased to announce the promotion of Matthew Giza to the position of executive vice president and general manager. Matthew will be responsible for guiding and reporting all aspects of Cogmedix operations, including sales, customer service, program management, operations, finances, and general administration.

“Matt has been with us more than five years and has truly led by example with passion, enthusiasm, and great focus on all key aspects of our business, including compliance, operations, and strong relationship management,” said Coghlin Companies president and CEO, Chris Coghlin. “Matt has earned the trust of the Coghlin Companies’ Board of Directors and we could not be more excited to have him in this role.”

Cogmedix provides turnkey medical device manufacturing services for the production of FDA-compliant medical and clinical devices. Matthew’s responsibilities as executive VP and general manager at Cogmedix will include monitoring and maintaining the certification standards for medical device manufacturing that have been established by the FDA.

Cogmedix has experienced significant growth in the past five years with Matthew Giza at the forefront of operations and administration. He is looking forward to the continued success of the company and expanding his experience to help to bring a wide range of innovative medical products to market.
