

Scott Cook Promoted to Vice President of Quality and Compliance at Cogmedix

WORCESTER, MA, November 17, 2015—Cogmedix, a wholly owned subsidiary of Coghlin Companies, Inc. and an FDA-compliant medical device engineering and manufacturing services provider, has promoted Scott Cook to Vice President of Quality and Compliance.

“I am incredibly thankful for this opportunity. It is an honor and privilege to be in this position,” said Cook. “I look forward to continuing to strengthen our Quality Systems and provide the highest levels of quality and compliance to our valued customers. The industry is constantly changing and evolving and we must continue to adapt, grow, and collaborate to see continuous success.”

Cook will continue to report directly to Executive Vice President and General Manager, Matt Giza, as he leads all aspects of Cogmedix’s quality initiatives. Over the last five years, Cook has built a robust Quality System and a great team at Cogmedix, making it an organization from which all Caring Associates can learn and grow.

“Scott has been an instrumental leader in all respects—specifically in the development of our compliance-focused culture,” stated Matt Giza. “Scott has driven this culture by being accountable, caring, focusing on process control and by passionately mentoring and leading by example.”

Cook has over two decades of medical device and biopharmaceutical experience, working for companies including AstraZeneca, Biogen, Primedica Corporation and Charles River Laboratories. Past relevant positions involved CGMP (current good manufacturing practices), GLP (good laboratory practices), and GCP (good clinical practices). He holds a BS degree from the University of Massachusetts Lowell and a Biotechnology Technician Certificate from Quinsigamond Community College.
